How do we book our visit?

You can book a visit either by calling the museum on 01333 310628 or e-mailing our office manager at enquiries@scotfishmuseum.org.

If you have specific dates in mind please allow as much notice as possible when booking.

Cancellations

We understand that sometimes you may need to cancel please give us as much notice as you can, particularly if you have booked a guide.

Packed lunch space

Our education centre is a lovely bright and airy room which can be used for activities, for eating packed lunches and for storing bags and coats. The room is lockable if required and has access to toilets nearby.

The room can take a group of up to 25 comfortably and up to 33 at a squeeze. Our lovely courtyard can also be used when the weather allows!

Disabled Access

The museum has full disabled access apart from the Victorian Fisherman's Cottage which can be viewed from the Days of Steam gallery instead.

Risk Assessment

We have an up-to-date Risk Assessment available on our website.

Child Protection Policy

All staff and volunteers working with children, young people and vulnerable adults go through the PVG process. A summary Child Protection Policy is available on request.

Parking

There is a car park across from the museum which has bays for coaches to be parked. Charges apply during summer months.

Please note:

- Maximum size for a visit to the museum is a class or group of up to 33 pupils. However if you wish to bring more than one class or group, please contact the museum to discuss.
- Particular areas of the museum can be cold in winter particularly in the boat yard where there is no heating to preserve the boats, so please dress appropriately!
- Behaviour and conduct are the responsibility of the teachers and accompanying adults at all times
